Mrs. Hornbeck To Address Las Vecinas Sorority's Halloween Dance Oct. 27

Las Vecinas will hold its monthly meeting today at 1 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Women's clubhouse. The speaker will be one of its own members, Mrs. Marybeth Hornbeck. Her topic will be "The Art of Learning While Sleeping."

Mrs. Hornbeck has received international recognition for the significance of her work with emotionally disturbed and brain-injured children in the field of sleep therapy and is in demand as a lecturer. She has been a social worker and an occupational therapist.

A writer and poetess, Mrs. Hornbeck has published close to 200 short stories for teenagers. She was one of the Chapparel poets honored on National Poetry Day, Oct. 14, at the memorial pilgrimage to the home of John Steven McGroarty. She has done recordings for children and is planning a radio series for teenagers after the first of the year.

Locally Mrs. Hornbeck is well known for her youth activities. She organized the first Brownie troop in Hollywood Riviera and took many of her scouts through the Curved Bar award. She is a life member of Las Vecinas and the Parent-Teacher Association.

Sorority's Halloween Dance Oct. 27

Ghosts, goblins and jack o'lanterns will be the motif at the Halloween Masquerade dance, first social activity of the newly formed South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi. An orchestra will furnish the music for the dance to be held at Club Alondra, 16411 Prairie Ave., Lawndale, Saturday, Oct. 27, from 9 to 1:30 a.m.

Advance sale of the tickets was made by the five member chapters of the council. Tickets will be sold at the door on Saturday night, reported Mrs. Bob Garrison, president of the South Bay Area Council.

Costumes are optional. Gifts for the best costumes and door prizes will be awarded. Members and their friends will be honored with the presence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lundigan of West Arcadia. Mrs. Lundigan is president of the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi.

Plans for the dance were made by a committee composed of Mmes. Ray Jennings, chairman; Bill Jackson, Rho Xi of Lawndale; James Emmons, Lambda Eta; Joe Wolfe, Omicron Phi; Donald Bradford, Pi Phi; and Miss Jeannette Nincevic, Theta Nu of Torrance.

Ice Breaker Party for Provisionals

Board members of the Las Vecinas club entertained at an "ice breaker" party last Saturday evening honoring the club's 20 provisionals and their husbands at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Max Webber, 1636 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes.

Betty Matson, president, and Lee O'Malley, party chairman, planned the party as a get-acquainted affair.

Dancing was enjoyed before and after the buffet supper. Swimming in the Webbers' pool was also enjoyed.

The list of new provisionals released by Frances Webber, membership chairman, includes Jeanne Bandoli, Muriel Bonnette, Charline French, Joyce Gardner, Eleanor Gilbert, Beryl Hatch, Jeanne Jacks, Ruth Jarvis, Dolores Keith, Alice Kuehnel, Marjorie MacLean, Pat McGrady, Pat Mayo, Jayne Meyer, Grace Noeth, Jane Ogborn, Dorothy Oswald, Lucille Schindler, Helen Vice and Maxine Welch.

Honor Guests

A combined baby shower and birthday party for Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gans, on the occasion of Mr. Gans' birthday, was given recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton A. Tatum, 1005 Kornblum Ave.

A playpen was presented to the Gans family and Mr. Gans opened the presents he received. Games and dancing followed.

Guests were Messrs. Charles Briner, Phil Carpenter, John McVey, Tom Randall; Mrs. Richard Heath, Dilo Schultz, and the guest of honor.

Carol Is Six

Carol Jacobsmeier entertained at a birthday party and luncheon on the occasion of her sixth birthday last week. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Jacobsmeier, 203 Calle de Arboles. The decorations were in pink and white. After luncheon games were played.

The guests were Leslie Ann Libbea, Sally Smith, Nancy Walker, Cindy Shattuck, Bridget Meehan, Karen Breuer, Cindy Forsberg, Debby Gossard and Claudia Dow.

VISITING DAUGHTER

Mrs. Martin L. Locke of Bridgeport, Texas, is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Van Dyke and children, Ronald, Deborah, Teresa, Rebecca and one-month-old Ramona, whom she is seeing for the first time.

During her stay the Van Dyke family and Mrs. Locke have enjoyed a number of sight-seeing trips and family dinners. Last night Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hawk, 288 Via Linda Vista, entertained at dinner for Mrs. Locke. Mrs. Locke will be returning home this week end.

POTLUCK DINNER

Junipero Serra Mothers' Club is giving a potluck dinner served Chuck Wagon style at the Junipero Serra High School cafeteria, 14800 S. Van Ness, Gardena, on Nov. 4, 4 to 7 p.m. The public is invited.

ALUMNAE MEETING

South Bay Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae will attend a dessert meeting Friday, Oct. 26 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marvin Walker, Palos Verdes. Mrs. Ned Bailey and Mrs. Lawrence Green are co-hostesses.

The 1957 slate of officers will be presented.

IN LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Stephens, 2749 Gramery, and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Stomberg of Redondo spent last week end in Las Vegas where they attended a Blue Print convention at the new Hacienda Hotel. The foursome made the trip in the Strombergs' private plane.

Hernandez-Carasco Rites Read at St. Margaret's

At an early morning nuptial mass at St. Margaret Mary's Church in Lomita last Saturday morning, Oct. 20, Miss Josephine Hernandez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Hernandez, 2213 25th St., Lomita, made her wedding promises to Louis Carasco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Carasco of Garden Grove.

As the 200 wedding guests assembled Mrs. Mary Butterfield played "Ave Maria" and "On This Day" and the wedding marches.

Entering the church first were the bridesmaids, Misses Lupe Hernandez and Helen Carasco. They wore bouffant gowns of powder blue dotted swiss and carried pink carnations.

Next came the maid of honor, Mrs. Ernest Lucero, wearing pink dotted swiss. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a Chantilly lace gown made

Toastmistress Club Meets

Eldorado Toastmistress club held its first public relations meeting last evening at a restaurant, on Manchester Blvd. with the president, Mrs. Don Bryant of Torrance, in charge. Toastmistress Mrs. Louis E. Sprague presented two speakers, George Powell of Torrance and Robert T. Gilmore, Jr., of Los Angeles.

Doctor Describes Hospital Program for Soroptimists

Dr. Frederic Ewens spoke to the members of the Torrance-Garden Soroptimist Club at the regular luncheon meeting held at a local restaurant and presided over by the club president, Mrs. Margaret Neff. He pointed out that hospital construction has not kept up with the building growth in this area but that something is being done about it.

Torrance Memorial Hospital, the doctor said, is one of the finest for its size of any hospital in the United States. When the new addition is completed there will be 96 beds. The new Riviera Hospital, soon to be built there, will have 96 beds. These, along with the new Sisters' Hospital to be constructed at Torrance Blvd. and Earl St. with a start of 125 beds, and as the needs grow to be expanded to 250, will relieve the situation in the Torrance area.

Monsignor O'Dwyer has asked Dr. Ewens to organize the staff for the Sisters' Hospital. Dr. Ewen was twice chief of staff at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, is counselor of the Southwest Branch of the County Medical Society, is a delegate to the Los Angeles County Medical Assn. to the California Medical Society, and alternate delegate of the

CARD PARTY

Members of Our Lady of the Rosary Guild will entertain with a card party, Oct. 25 (Thursday) at 8 p.m., in St. Margaret Mary's parish hall, 255th and Eselman, Lomita. All card games will be played. There will be prizes and refreshments. Mrs. Boss Twiss, chairman, invites the public.

VISIT FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Amos, and children, Glen and Jack, spent the week end in Anderson, Calif., south of Redding, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rossiter. Mrs. Amos and Mrs. Rossiter have been friends since they were in fourth grade together.
